

SUNSHINE SNIPPETS

President's Message

MERRY CHRISTMAS, EVERYONE!!!!

Can you believe another Christmas is just around the corner? It's incredible that this will be the last meeting for the year 2014? I can barely get my head around this, especially after missing last month's meeting due to snow.

For our December meeting we'll be following the usual format – next week, December 10th- but there won't be any guest speaker. This time will be reserved for all of us to chat- there's never enough time for that, it seems –and to visit with each other. There will be coffee and tea and trays of Christmas goodies to munch on, and I'm sure they are calorie-free!

Sue Sullivan will be doing the Schoolhouse she planned and readied for last month, and Trudy and Chris have been busy buying new books for the Library that they want to share with you. Of course a most important part of our meetings is Show and Share. I know you've all been sewing madly for Christmas and we all want to see the results! So, bring them along.

Basically we'll be completing all the loose ends we missed from last month so re-read the Newsletter if you receive it by e-mail. A most important item is to bring some socks for Outreach (men's, women's or children's) that Loretta has requested.

I am writing this late at night after a busy day and evening ( what else is new at this time of year?) so I hope this message makes sense.

We're looking forward to seeing you on Wednesday for our Christmas Tea and Meeting. If you aren't able to come please have yourself a Merry and safe Christmas and keep healthy,too!

Frances

Program

Unfortunately our trunk show for November was cancelled, too bad because they had 40 quilts to show at our meeting. The good news is that Bev Scholte and the Georgian Triangle group have agreed to come August 2015, so we can look forward to their trunk show.

Other quilters we have arranged for 2015

February 18 Sue Polera

March 18 Donna Housley

April 15 Martha Schellingerhound

May 20 Ruth Kennedy

June 17 Jan Easton (Quilts of Valour)

Amendment to our Constitution to be voted on at Annual General Meeting:

ARTICLE 10: DISSOLUTION OF ORILLIA QUILTERS' GUILD

Any net assets remaining after disbursements paid out, of the Orillia Quilters' Guild will be donated to a local charity decided upon by the remaining members of the Guild at dissolution with a 50% plus one majority.
